
2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Nadira Abdi

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, California

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Chung Ang University in Seoul, South Korea

Internship(s): Fall Semester: Women's Studies 570; Spring Semester: Admin. Assistant at Mid-City Can.

Languages: English, Somali, Korean

Graduate school/career plans: Working in a non-profit or the US Embassy, then applying to graduate schools.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Seoul, South Korea; it was an opportunity of a lifetime, a journey that I never would have experienced otherwise. In addition, the classes that I took with Professors Baer, Ghosh, Larom, and Greb, among others, made my experience in this major worthwhile. Their outstanding classes have made me think, question, and acknowledge the past, present, and potentially the future when it comes to International Security and Human Rights.

Karen Aceves

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Study abroad experience(s): Rimini, Italy

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: University of San Francisco Fall 2018 Urban and Public Affairs Masters

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Study Abroad experience with National Conflict Resolution Center in Rimini, Italy

Nael Al-Hadid

Birthplace or Hometown: Amman, Jordan

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Internship(s): Costa Rica internship

Languages: Arabic, English, working knowledge of Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Internship in Thailand or Cape Town

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Costa Rica internship

Carmel Alon

Birthplace or Hometown: Haifa, Israel

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Summer in Israel, Summer in Italy/Switzerland

Internship(s): Research Assistant for former UN Ambassador for Israel

Languages: Hebrew

Graduate school/career plans: Attending Law School Fall 2019

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My most memorable experience as an ISCOR major was being able to meet passionate and motivated individuals throughout my different ISCOR classes. I know that many of the people that I met and became friends with will go off to do incredible things in this world.

Mohammad AlTunaib

Birthplace or Hometown: Kuwait

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution.

Study abroad experience(s): Georgia, Summer 2016

Internship(s): International Rescue Committee, SOULA

Languages: English, Arabic

Graduate school/career plans: Graduate School at Georgetown, Foreign Service

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Although I am considered to be currently studying abroad in the US, my most memorable experience was when I studied abroad as part of a school program. I went to Georgia with Dr. Allen Greb; I got to travel with a very diverse group of students and an extremely knowledgeable staff. From that trip, I have gained knowledge, insight, and most importantly friends.

Steven Alvarez

Birthplace or Hometown: Calexico, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Cultural/ Regional visits to Tijuana (via LATAM 320)

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: To work in Federal Law Enforcement

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Appreciating how interconnected and interdependent our border regions and cities are, particularly San Diego and Tijuana, for social, economic and political stability.

Jacobo Esau Arguelles

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Minor(s): Political Science

Study abroad experience(s): LATAM 320

Culture and Society of Tijuana

Internship(s): San Diego Housing Commission – Labor Compliance Analyst Intern

Languages: English, Spanish, Italian

Graduate school/career plans: Apply to Fulbright Program and get Master's degree in Public Administration in Italy.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Exploring the city of Tijuana with my LATAM 320 classmates.

Chris Baca

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Had a class in Tijuana, and will be going to Lucknow, India, for 10 weeks over the summer to learn Urdu (CLS Award)

Internship(s): AmeriCorps Volunteer Coordinator at Jewish Family Services' Refugee Resettlement Program

Languages: French and Spanish –will learn Urdu over the summer through the Department of State's Critical Language Scholarship

Graduate school/career plans: Plan to go to graduate school for Foreign Relations and Public Policy or Law School

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Going to the Nevada National Security Site and getting to meet amazing people who I am sure will go on to do great things.

Kateryna Bardzak

Birthplace or Hometown: Uzhhorod, Ukraine

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Languages: Ukrainian, Rusyn, Russian, English, Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Graduate School in the Field of International Relations

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Conflict simulations in ISCOR classes with Dr. Greb. In addition, the Nevada National Security Site field trip was very exciting and fun.

Esteban Becerra

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, California
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Double major: Criminal Justice: Law in Society

Study abroad experience(s): International Relations, Human Rights, and Diplomacy: the European Approach in Porto, Portugal.

Internship(s): Intern Port of San Diego Harbor Police; Student Worker San Diego County Sheriff's Department

Graduate school/career plans: Attend law school, and potentially a Master's degree in International Relations

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The variety of simulation experiences as well as the study abroad experience in Porto; the fact that ISCOR as a whole has engaged my critical analysis skills more thoroughly.

Brianna Rene Bradley

Birthplace or Hometown: Ridgecrest, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Double major: Political Science

Study abroad experience(s): Portugal Winter 2017/2018

Internship(s): United States Secret Service, Naval Air Warfare Center Weapons Division, Naval Medical Center San Diego

Languages: German

Graduate school/career plans: SDSU Political Science Graduate Program Fall 2018

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Class simulations and study abroad

Michelle Bruce

Birthplace or Hometown: Hershey, Pennsylvania

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Rome, Italy (Winter Break 2017-2018) Fundamentals of Entrepreneurship

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Languages: English, French, Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Return to work for the Department of Defense
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The simulations were the most impactful part of my experience.

Nicholas S. Colin Campbell

Hometown: Swampscott, Massachusetts
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia/Russia 2016-2017
Internship(s): International Rescue Committee
Languages: Arabic & French
Graduate school/career plans: Seeking employment in the field of defense policy, corporate risk assessment, or product management. Eventual desire to pursue PhD in history.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: I'll never forget my experience standing at the edge of a crater made by a nuclear weapon at the test site in Nevada, and the realization that international security shouldn't be treated like a game, even if it requires strategy.

Nicole Marie Cerri

Birthplace or Hometown: Pleasanton, CA
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Study abroad experience(s): Oxford Study Abroad Program
Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Languages: Italian, American Sign Language
Graduate school/career plans: Planning to work for an intelligence agency
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Having the privilege of studying abroad in Oxford and traveling around Europe. Also, making friends I never would have known if it wasn't for the program--and being exposed to new foods and customs.

Hilary Cohen

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Minor(s): Marketing

Study abroad experience(s): Maastricht University, Maastricht, Netherlands-Semester Abroad Spring 2017
Internship(s): SPAWAR Analyst internship, U.S Senator Dianne Feinstein internship, Jewish Family Services Refugee Resettlement internship
Graduate school/career plans: Undecided
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My favorite part of ISCOR was the simulations. They helped me engage with other ISCOR students as well as learn more about pressing issues around the world.

Bryce Edward Crandall

Birthplace or Hometown: Lake George, New York
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia & Russia, 2017/18
Internship(s): Denise Gitsham for Congress 2016
Languages: Arabic
Graduate school/career plans: UCSD School of Global Policy and Security
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My fellow ISCORians. It was truly a pleasure to be around so many people who care so much for the world around them, yet so little for personal time management.

Shannon Crowley

Birthplace or Hometown: Naperville, IL
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Honors Interdisciplinary Studies, Spanish
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia, Russia
Internship(s): Global Guardian
Languages: English, Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Take some time off before applying to both Intelligence and Operations positions in Federal Government.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: It has to be my international study in Estonia and Russia, both because of how much I learned and how great the people were. I could not have asked for a better group to travel with.

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Charles Sherwood Crumpton III

Birthplace or Hometown: Greenville, SC (hometown)

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Clinton Scholar (semester in Dubai, UAE)

Internship(s): Tricon Security, LLC (Protective Services Associate)

Languages: Arabic

Graduate school/career plans: Law enforcement, military, or intelligence

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Trip to Vegas and tour of Nevada National Security Site

Paola Díaz de Regules

Birthplace or Hometown: Mexico City

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict and Conflict Resolution

Minor(s): Religious Studies, French

Study abroad experience(s): ITESM Mexico, Certificate in Human Rights and Corruption

Internship(s): Enuma: Strategic consulting in impact and social development.

Languages: French, Spanish, English

Graduate school/career plans: SDSU's Master on Latin American Studies and Public Administration

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Some of the presenters at the ISCOR meetings really spoke to me. It was great to hear about professional people with different backgrounds and what they are doing to change the world. Also, O'Brien's classes are amazing and Greb's simulations are a great experience that will remain with me forever.

Ana Diaz

Birthplace or Hometown: Monterrey, Mexico (Birthplace)

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Minor(s): Honors Interdisciplinary Minor
Study abroad experience(s): Maastricht, Netherlands

Internship(s): City of Encinitas- Climate Action Plan Intern; Save Good Food- Food Security Intern

Languages: English and Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Applying for Graduate School next year

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Simulations in ISCOR classes and meeting ISCOR peers in our Core Classes

Julia Elhai

Birthplace or Hometown: Simi Valley, CA

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Minor(s): Women's Studies

Study abroad experience(s): Academic year abroad with CSUIP, Kingston Upon the Thames, London, England, United Kingdom

Internship(s): Public Diplomacy Intern General Consulate of Israel in Los Angeles; US National Committee for UN Women Safe Zones; Sustainable Development United Nations Association UNA-USA San Diego

Languages: English, Spanish, some Hebrew

Graduate school/career plans: Moving to NYC for a fellowship through Avodah, working with NY Legal Assistance Group's Public Benefits Unit; after that, deferred entry to UC Hastings School of Law in 2019

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: I loved participating in the simulations in many classes. While they could be exhaustive and research dense, they gave me the opportunity to experience conflict resolution first-hand.

Rafael Alejandro Esparza

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA

Major area of emphasis: Global Systems; Justice in the Global System

Study abroad experience(s): Salamanca, Spain

Internship(s): City of San Diego Internship, Senator Joel Anderson Legislative Internship
Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: International Relations Masters Program at Salamanca University

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Spain

Gina Giselle Espinoza

Hometown: Calexico, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Criminal Justice in Xiamen, China

Internship(s): Unaccompanied minors shelter in El Cajon, Ca

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: I plan to connect with the multi-cultural communities in San Diego and help them find programs and resources for both adults and children, either through nonprofit or private institutions. Law school is a possibility in the future.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: I loved the conversations that would take place in the classroom with other ISCOR students. The simulations in Greb's class helped me become more comfortable in speaking on international diplomatic manners. ISCOR taught me how to have an open discussion about real world issues.

Fernando Fierro

Birthplace or Hometown: Chula Vista, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Minor(s): Sociology

Study abroad experience(s): Tbilisi, Georgia

Internship(s): International Rescue Committee (IRC); National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)

Languages: Spanish & English

Graduate school/career plans: Work with refugees and minority groups

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Traveling abroad

Emily Elizabeth Friesen

Birthplace or Hometown: Loomis, California

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Oxford University Study Abroad

Internship(s): Department of Homeland Security (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services); Drug Enforcement Administration

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Planning to attend USD's Paralegal Program in the fall

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My fondest memories as an ISCOR student were when I studied abroad in the United Kingdom with fellow ISCOR friends.

Nicholas Prince Gallagher

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, California

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Double major: ISCOR and Spanish

Minor(s): Honors and Interdisciplinary Studies

Study abroad experience(s): Tbilisi, Georgia; Ávila, Spain

Internship(s): Youth Tutor at the International Rescue Committee

Languages: English, Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Will be pursuing an M.A. in Political Science at SDSU

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Hands down wandering through the streets of Tbilisi, Georgia, late at night with my fellow ISCOR students and Professor Greb.

Miguel Angel Garcia

Birthplace or Hometown: Tijuana, Mexico

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Minor(s): German

Study abroad experience(s): Mannheim, Germany. Spring 2016

Internship(s): United Nation Association UNA-USA

Languages: Spanish, English, German

Graduate school/career plans: Applied for US Customs and Border Protection; in the future applying to Homeland Security Masters Program at SDSU

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Having the opportunity to share and test my knowledge during my study abroad experience in Germany, getting to know wonderful people and learning about and discussing global issues.

David William Gay

Birthplace or Hometown: Temecula, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Minor(s): Spanish

Study abroad experience(s): San Jose, Costa Rica

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Studying for the FSOT hoping to become a Foreign Service Officer in the Department of State

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The multiple simulations that took place and post resolution trips to 4.0 Deli.

Ilan Freeman Graubart

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Rimini, Italy
Alternative Dispute Resolution
Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Traveling through Italy

Ellison Paige Grove

Birthplace or Hometown: Catharpin, Virginia
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Russian
Study abroad experience(s): Barcelona, Spain
Winter 2016: Collaborate, Facilitate, Conciliate
Internship(s): Internship with Congressman Mike Conaway's District of Columbia Office, Summer 2015: Attending committee hearings, drafting memos, answering and logging phone calls and letters, and conducting tours of the US Capitol Building.
Languages: Russian
Graduate school/career plans: I plan to travel for a bit and pursue a career in diplomacy.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My most memorable experience, other than my study abroad, were the many simulations that I was part of in Dr. Greb's classes. No matter the class or topic of the simulation, each was a completely different experience for me. I always walked away with new lessons learned. The simulations challenged me and the other students to think in a creative, yet realistic way, and truly exposed us to the challenges of international relations.

Daniel Eduardo Guillermety

Birthplace or Hometown: Barranquilla, Colombia
Major area of emphasis: Environment & Security
Study abroad experience(s): Tijuana, Mexico
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Career in government

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Drinking beer and discussing geopolitics at Oggi's with Greb

Heman Belay Hailemeleket

Birthplace or Hometown: Ethiopia
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Minor(s): French
Study abroad experience(s): I had a great opportunity to study abroad in Rimini, Italy, with the most welcoming and entertaining staff as well as fellow classmates. It was a life changing and an eye opening experience for my professional and personal development. I was able to get a better understanding of conflict theory, mediation strategy and practice, effective communication skills, and culture in conflict resolution.
Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC).
Languages: Amharic, French, English.
Graduate school/career plans: I want to have a career that meets the needs of vulnerable populations at a local, national, and international level. Consequently, I plan to work in the humanitarian aid services field in non-profit, intergovernmental, or governmental organizations.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The simulation experiences top the list of my most memorable journey at SDSU. I got the opportunity to efficiently communicate and address different points of views on important real-world issues. The process of drafting a proposal and signing a "treaty" developed my critical thinking as well decision-making skills.

Alexandra Harvey

Birthplace or Hometown: Lemon Grove, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Semester at Deakin University in Australia
Internship(s): Worldview Project
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My ISCOR 200 class even though I found out much later that I didn't need it; it is part of what made me fall in love with the major.

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Shaila Deann Homan

Birthplace or Hometown: Chandler, Arizona
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Women's Studies
Study abroad experience(s): Tijuana, spring 2017
Graduate school/career plans: I'm currently working in the non-profit field focusing on U.S.-Mexico border relations. I plan to go into immigration law within the next few years.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Because of this major, I was pushed to explore global conflict under diverse settings. As a result, I joined the Olive Tree Initiative to study the Israel-Palestine conflict. After two years of multi-faceted education, I traveled to this region to gain a hands-on perspective on conflict, resistance, and vibrant culture.

Abdullah Jadallah

Birthplace or Hometown: Saudi Arabia
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Leadership Development
Study abroad experience(s): I Am studying abroad here in the U.S.
Internship(s): International Rescue Committee: YAP program; Research Study with Professor Michael McHan from the Department of Communication
Languages: Arabic and English
Graduate school/career plans: Applying for top US national schools (Georgetown: George Washington, American University)
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: That through every breakdown, there always will be a breakthrough. ISCOR classes along with simulations were definitely the most memorable things as an ISCOR major.

Jake Francis Jamison

Birthplace or Hometown: Berkeley, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Humanities
Study abroad experience(s): Tbilisi, Georgia
Languages: Arabic
Graduate school/career plans: A Federal Agency
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Faculty led study abroad trip to Tbilisi,

Georgia, and being part of the ISCOR Student Society.

Leona Koxha

Birthplace or Hometown: Pristina, Kosovo
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Political Science
Study abroad experience(s): Porto, Portugal
Languages: English, Albanian, Arabic, American Sign Language
Graduate school/career plans: I plan to return to my home country of Kosovo to help increase women's visibility and promote the realization of human rights. After some experience in the field, I will return to pursue a graduate program, with the ultimate aspiration to serve as a U.S. Ambassador.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Being introduced to outstanding faculty members who, as experts in their fields, have molded me into a more globally aware young woman.

Justin Kramer

Birthplace or Hometown: Los Angeles, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia/Russia Winter 2017/18
Internship(s): Congresswoman Susan Davis San Diego Office; Senator Dianne Feinstein San Diego Office
Languages: Spanish, German
Graduate school/career plans: Work for a few years, then grad school
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Going to the Winter Palace in St. Petersburg, Russia

Evgeny Kuharev

Birthplace or Hometown: Stavropol, Russia
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): German
Study abroad experience(s): Philipps-Universität Marburg, Germany, Spring 2017
Internship(s): International Peace Institute, Manama, Kingdom of Bahrain, Summer 2017
Languages: Russian, German, English
Graduate school/career plans: Accepted for MSc in International Political Economy at the

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE)

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Study abroad in Germany

Daniela Lam Gomez

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Study abroad experience(s): University of Cambridge, UK: British and American Intelligence Summer 2017

Languages: Spanish, English

Graduate school/career plans: Master's degree in International Relations, then working in the field

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad added an entire new layer of understanding to the subject matter covered in the classroom

Paul Landeros

Birthplace or Hometown: Chula Vista, California

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): LATAM 350: Globalization and the Americas, during which I had the pleasure of working with the students of UABC in Tijuana

Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)

Graduate school/career plans: Currently interviewing for full time opportunities

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Coming to the realization that conflict entails much more than you think, and being able to analyze conflicts in their local, national, and global context.

Jordan Law

Birthplace or Hometown: Orange, CA

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Minor(s): Honors Minor in Interdisciplinary Studies

Study abroad experience(s): Maastricht, Netherlands

Internship(s): San Diego World Affairs Council
Graduate school/career plans: Law/Graduate school

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Study abroad and sustainability classes.

Shawn Mark Lindsey

Birthplace or Hometown: Birthplace - San Diego, CA / Hometown - Pittsburgh, PA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Tbilisi, Georgia

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Graduate School – Georgetown University: Master of Professional Studies in Applied Intelligence. Career Plans – Federal Law Enforcement

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Tbilisi Georgia, with an amazing and diverse group of young adults and SDSU professors. I was able to learn something new and appreciate their opinions from a civilian perspective as well as share my point of view from a military perspective. I also thoroughly enjoyed Dr. Greb's ISCOR class simulations, which forces students to work in groups to develop conflict resolution strategies from various actors' perspectives.

Vivian Jennifer Lon

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, California

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Study abroad experience(s): Hosei University in Tokyo, Japan 2017

Languages: English, Japanese (J3)

Graduate school/career plans: Get a job and make money, using everything I have learned as an ISCOR major.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My first day being in Japan, for my study abroad experience, feeling nervous and culture shocked amid cherry blossom trees beginning to bloom. Then experiencing and learning about the culture, as well as meeting many diverse people from all around the world. The experience was life changing, enlightening and enriching! Thanks ISCOR for everything!

Paul R. Lorenz

Birthplace or Hometown: Ventura, CA

Major area of emphasis: Environment & Security)

Study abroad experience(s): Estonia and Russia 2016/2017

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Internship(s): Wildlife Act

Graduate school/career plans: I will be moving to Western Australia to start my education path to obtain a Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine. I plan to become active in the field of wildlife conservation and hope to work on projects concerning wildlife trafficking.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: It would have to be studying abroad in Russia and Estonia. I will never forget how much fun I had and how much I learned during my time in two countries that I never thought I would be able to visit. Two weeks just wasn't enough!

Adam Lucero

Birthplace or Hometown: Sacramento, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Porto, Portugal

Internship(s): San Diego County Office of Emergency Services

Languages: English, Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Officer Commission with the U.S Air Force or U.S. Coast Guard

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Visiting the Nevada National Security Site

Colin McCracken

Birthplace or Hometown: Burlingame, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Minor(s): Political Science

Study abroad experience(s): Estonia and Russia, Winter 2017-18

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: I will be taking a year off in order to apply to the Peace Corps. My future goals include going to graduate school for a Master's degree in diplomacy.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad with Professor Greb, fellow ISCORians, and other SDSU students. I'll never forget the memories I created on this study abroad trip.

Cassidy McKenzie

Birthplace or Hometown: Leesburg, Virginia

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Cambridge University

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Paralegal

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad with all my friends

Colin Mitchell Medigovich

Birthplace or Hometown: Elk Grove, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Estonia/Russia Program

Internship(s): Took History 574: Arab-Israeli Relations

Languages: Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: Governmental Work or Military Service

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Having the unique opportunity to visit countries such as Estonia, Russia, and Sweden.

Aldo Mercado

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA

Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System

Double major: Spanish

Study abroad experience(s): Tijuana with Professor Victor Clark Alfaro

Internship(s): Binational Center for Human Rights, Tijuana

Languages: Spanish/English

Graduate school/career plans: Join the military as an Intelligence Officer

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My internship at the Binational Center for Human Rights in Tijuana

Esteban Juan Mojica-Edrozo

Birthplace or Hometown: Chula Vista, CA

Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): Georgia Summer 2018

Graduate school/career plans: Continue working to save for graduate school and also look at post-graduate internship opportunities.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Our simulations of both the North Korean nuclear crisis and the Syrian conflict in Dr. Greb's courses.

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Chandler James Morris

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Porto, Portugal
Internship(s): Capstone Graduate level course
Languages: English and French
Graduate school/career plans: Immigration Service Officer for US Customs and Immigration Services
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Conflict simulations in Dr. Greb's classes

Karla Melissa Moya

Birthplace or Hometown: Los Angeles / Mexico
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Glasgow, Scotland, Strathclyde University
Internship(s): San Diego Diplomacy Council, Office of the Chief Council - OPLA Languages: Spanish, French.
Graduate school/career plans: Law School / Legal Assistant for now
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Grabbing a beer with Greb; just kidding! Killing it as North Korea in a simulation, and having class with friends.

Patrick Mullins Jr

Birthplace or Hometown: San Francisco, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Anthropology
Study abroad experience(s): Studied in England at Cambridge
Internship(s): Drug Enforcement Agency
Languages: French
Graduate school/career plans: United States Naval Officer
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: When asked by Professor Greb who the "Joe-1" atomic bomb was named after and responding "Joe Mama" instead of Joseph Stalin.

Jordan Danielle Nelson

Birthplace or Hometown: Irvine, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

Study abroad experience(s): International Relations, Human Rights, and Diplomacy: The European Approach in Porto, Portugal
Internship(s): Immigration Intern at the International Rescue Committee
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Graduate School, International Fieldwork, Domestic Non-profit work
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Taking Professor O'Brien's 300 and 301 ISCOR classes, my two favorite classes that at SDSU. Professor O'Brien and the material she assigned really expanded my understanding of the world and the things that I can do to make a difference in the world.

Mitchell Nguyen

Birthplace or Hometown: Anaheim, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Public Health
Study abroad experience(s): IVHQ Sri Lanka Summer 2017
Internship(s): Economic Development Intern at the International Rescue Committee
Languages: German, Arabic
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My study abroad experience in Sri Lanka where I was able to assist in renovating a Temple.

Colin Leonard Nichols

Birthplace or Hometown: Norwell, Massachusetts
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Study abroad experience(s): NCRC Spain Winter 2017/18
Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Graduate school/career plans: Currently waiting on background investigation with U.S. Customs and Border Patrol
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Study abroad with NCRC to Spain

Jordan Marie Ochoa

Birthplace or Hometown: Norco, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience: Rimini Italy

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Internship: National Conflict Resolution Center
Languages: American Sign Language and French
Graduate school/career plans: Pursuing a job in Government
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Italy and learning more about mediation.

Kiely Jameson O'Connor

Birthplace or Hometown: Denver, Colorado
Major area of emphasis: Environment & Security
Minor(s): Sustainability
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia/Russia
Languages: Russian
Graduate school/career plans: Pursuing a career in the environmental/renewable technology sector
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Getting to travel to Estonia and Russia with Dr. Greb and other ISCOR students

Linda Ortiz

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Study abroad experience(s): Oxford, England
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Foreign Service Officer
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The close-knit family experience with my fellow ISCOR colleagues. We really helped each other throughout this journey; thank you!

Malin Ouk

Birthplace or Hometown: Long Beach, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): Women Studies
Study abroad experience(s): AIESEC Thailand Sawasdee #23
Internship(s): Japanese American Citizen League, John K. Moy Internship; English Teacher in Thailand
Languages: Japanese, Cambodian
Graduate school/career plans: Peace Corps, Department of Defense
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Dr. Allen Greb's classes and simulations.

It gets a little crazy during simulations but diplomacy usually prevails!

Joshua Owens

Birthplace or Hometown: Chula Vista, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Minor(s): History
Study abroad experience(s): Pécs, Hungary
Internship(s): San Diego World Trade Center, ESET Cyber Security, and San Diego Leadership Forum
Languages: Enough Spanish to survive Mexico
Graduate school/career plans: Attending Marine Corps Officer Candidate School
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: All of the simulations with Dr. Greb, and avoiding all math/science classes!

Victoria Pantelis

Birthplace or Hometown: Roseville, Minnesota
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Minor(s): Personality and Social Psychology
Study abroad experience(s): Tbilisi, Georgia
Internship(s): United States Marshals Service
Languages: French
Graduate school/career plans: Currently pursuing a job in the federal government.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Definitely studying abroad in Georgia; it was a unique experience that I don't think I would have gotten studying anywhere else. It was also my first "introduction" to ISCOR, and I officially changed my major around that time. I'm so glad that I did!

Chase Thomas Pickwell

Birthplace or Hometown: Solana Beach, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia/Russia Winter 2016
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: United States Marine Corps
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: New Year's in Tartu, Estonia, during Study Abroad with Dr. Greb

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Alexandra Leah Pollard

Birthplace or Hometown: Chandler, Arizona
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Mannheim, Germany Spring 2017
Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Languages: German
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: My semester abroad and all the great classes the program has to offer.

Brett Rameil

Birthplace or Hometown: Toulon, France
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Aix-en-Provence, France, and Rimini, Italy
Languages: French, English, and Arabic
Graduate school/career plans: Work in the diplomatic world
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Rimini, Italy

Trenton Randles

Birthplace or Hometown: San Jose, CA
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Double major: Criminal Justice
Minor(s): Interdisciplinary Studies
Study abroad experience(s): Winter Oxford Study Abroad
Internship(s): Department of Defense and Department of Homeland Security
Graduate school/career plans: SPAWAR Internship
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The various simulations allowed me to expand on theoretical knowledge and put it into practice while engaging with other students on numerous global topics. They were both fun and challenging.

Desiree Rodarte

Birthplace or Hometown: Orange County, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Tbilisi, Georgia
Internship(s): YALLA Nonprofit
Languages: English/Spanish

Graduate school/career plans: I'd like to pursue a graduate degree in either linguistics, international relations, or some other subfield of Political Science.

Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Spending all-nighters in the library working with other ISCOR students on Professor O'Brien's research papers.

Evellyn Rosas

Birthplace or Hometown: Los Angeles, California
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Minor(s): Latin American Studies
Study abroad experience(s): I volunteered with an NGO in Mexico City, in December 2016. I also attended a weekly class in Tijuana through LATAM 320 to learn about the culture and society of the city, the country, and the region.
Internship(s): Southern Sudanese Community Center and the International Rescue Committee
Languages: English and Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: I plan to continue working for non-profits that center their work on refugees and immigration issues.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: The group discussions we conducted during Professor Cheryl O'Brien's ISCOR 301: Global Systems class, during which we focused on violence against women. The class taught me how intersectionality and feminism tie into international policies through women's movements. I was inspired to continue participating in student activism and to work with people who are sexually exploited.

Molly Salazar

Birthplace or Hometown: Orange County, CA
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Study abroad experience(s): Salamanca, Spain
Internship(s): United Nations Association UNA-USA SAN DIEGO
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Paralegal Certificate Program; National Guard; graduate school abroad in the future
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: ISCOR 200 Simulation regarding the Syrian Crisis

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Madison Mackenzie Schellpeper

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Rimini, Italy – Communicate, Negotiate, Mediate
Internship(s): Senator Joel Anderson's Office
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Planning to obtain a master's degree in Forensic Psychology
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Italy with old and new friends!

Miranda Elise Scherman

Birthplace or Hometown: Chula Vista, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): Rimini, Italy, Summer 2017
Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Languages: English, Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: I came into the ISCOR major knowing I wanted to make an impact towards helping others somehow – whether within a smaller community or on the international level. My current career prospects involve finding work with either a non-governmental organization or an embassy, and in the meantime grow as a global citizen.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Studying abroad in Italy for a summer with the NCRC and with fellow peers from SDSU. This was my first trip to Europe; it gave me memories to last a lifetime.

Jennyfer M. Sedano

Birthplace or Hometown: Los Angeles, California
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Study abroad experience(s): Inequality and Activism in Brazil (Summer 2018)
Languages: Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Employed with the State of California Department of Industrial Relations; applying for Master's program to begin in Fall 2019
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Going through the struggle with everyone!

Chloe Sension

Birthplace or Hometown: Temecula, CA
Major area of emphasis: Justice in the Global System
Minor(s): Spanish; Honors Interdisciplinary Studies
Study abroad experience(s): Oxford Study Abroad Programme Winter Term 2014/2015
Internship(s): San Diego Housing Commission, Homeless Housing Innovations Department Intern 2017-2018
Languages: English, Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: I want to apply my education and experiences to areas of social justice, inequality, and the law, in both national and international arenas. I plan to take a few years to work and gain more experience and then possibly apply for graduate or law school.
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: All of my classes taken for my Justice in the Global System specialization, in particular the comparative government/ international relations course at Oxford University, which opened my eyes to the world of global problem solving. This study abroad experience led me into the ISCOR major.

Alexandra Stroh

Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Environment & Security
Minor: Religious Studies
Study abroad experiences: University of Kent in Canterbury, England, and Chiang Mai University in Chiang Mai, Thailand
Internships: Refugee and Resettlement Intern at Jewish Family Services, and Marketing and Social Outreach Intern at social enterprise 'Lotus and Luna'
Language: Spanish; one semester of Thai
Career plans: To work in international development and one day start my own social enterprise
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Going to Vegas and visiting the Nevada National Security Site with the ISCOR Student Society.

Anthony Toscano

Birthplace or Hometown: Brentwood, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution

2018 ISCOR GRADUATES

Double major: Criminal Justice
Study abroad experience(s): ISCOR 450 Study Abroad in Portugal: International Relations, Human Rights, and Diplomacy
Internship(s): City of San Diego's Commission on Gang Prevention and Intervention
Languages: English, Spanish, Portuguese
Graduate school/career plans: Attend Law School
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Study Abroad trip in Portugal. Got to experience a completely different culture while working on my degree.

Jonathan Taylor Toth

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, CA
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Study abroad experience(s): LATAM 320: Culture & Society of Tijuana
Internship(s): Food and water security w/ Dr. David Larom
Languages: English, Spanish.
Graduate school/career plans: Federal Law Enforcement
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Meeting new friends.

Marco Jeremy Uribe

Birthplace or Hometown: San Diego, California
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution emphasis.
Double major: Spanish
Study abroad experience(s): Universidad Católica de Ávila, Spain
Languages: English, Spanish
Graduate school/career plans: Master's program in Homeland Security at SDSU
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Dr. Greb's simulations; chance to deal with "real life" issues such as Korea.

Jingting Ye

Birthplace or Hometown: Canton, China
Major area of emphasis: Cooperation, Conflict, and Conflict Resolution
Double major: Asian Studies
Study abroad experience(s): Estonia and Russia (Winter 2018)

Internship(s): National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC)
Languages: English, Korean, Mandarin, Cantonese, Japanese
Graduate school/career plans: Law school
Your most memorable experience as an ISCOR major: Every time I take Dr. Greb's classes, I would have the chance to discuss and research current global issues and international security problems; for instance, the North Korea Nuclear and Missile Crisis. That's a good topic and relevant to our real life. ISCOR classes offered me the chance to study and explore these true global issues.